Edward M. Hoerner
Named Director For TV Station WWL

Edward M. Hoerner has been named program director for television station WWL-TV. The announcement of Hoerner's appointment was made by W. Howard Summerville, general manager for the new VHF station, which will go on the air next month on Channel 4.

Mr. Hoerner has been associated with WWL Radio for the past 17 years. He joined the staff as a station announcer and singer in 1940 and became program director in 1945.

In 1953, when the plans for WWL-TV were developed, Mr. Hoerner was appointed as a special assistant to Mr. Summerville and placed in charge of television programs for the proposed new station.

According to Mr. Hoerner, the program policies of WWL-TV will follow a pattern established by WWL in its 35 years of radio broadcasting. Entertainment, news, information and public service features will be presented in careful balance.

Mr. Hoerner said WWL-TV will be a full-time basic affiliate of the Columbia Broadcasting System's television network. This will enable the new station to bring local viewers the complete CBS schedule of television programs, many of which were not previously available in the New Orleans viewing area.

In addition to network shows, Mr. Hoerner explained that a well diversified group of local origin features are being planned. They will include shows which are telecast in WWL-TV's extensive new studios at 1024 North Rampart Street and special events telecast from remote locations throughout the metropolitan area. Mr. Hoerner is a native of New Orleans.

His early experience includes appearance with the Loyola University Light Opera Group and Le Petit Theatre du Vieux Carre. He has supervised many CBS radio programs originating from New Orleans.

A weekly nationwide broadcast

"SWEET SMELL OF SUCCESS TO BE AT HI-WAY DRIVE IN

The figurative throat-slicers and Second Street backbiters who populate the entertainment belt of Broadway are the subject of "Sweet Smell of Success" and this interesting species of fauna was filmed in its natural habitat.

The "Sweet Smell of Success" company spent some three weeks of location shooting on Broadway and its tributaries, utilizing a host of familiar but curiously enough, rarely photographed settings.

Burt Lancaster and Tony Curtis are starred in "Sweet Smell of Success," and Susan Harrison is introduced. Marty Milner, Sam Levene, Barbara Nichols, and Jeff Donnell head the featured cast. A Hecht-Hill-Lancaster production directed by Alexander Mackendrick, "Sweet Smell of Success" opens on Sunday at the Hiway Theatre through United Artists release.

One of the location sites—in fact, the first in which Tony Curtis appears on the screen in the film—was the stage door of the famous Palace Theatre on West 47th Street. Sharing honors with the old theatre in the scene are a couple of Broadway characters chatting beside a shoe shine stand. The two characters, making a brief "guest" appearance, are producer James Hill and playwright Clifford Odets.

The "Sweet Smell of Success" company shot from dawn to dusk during its New York sojourn, against such odds as the bitter cold (the temperature averaged about twenty degrees), huge crowds of curious onlookers, long hours and fatigue from lack of sleep.

The company even braved the congestion of Broadway in the heart of Times Square during the show-bus hours, filming a key sequence with Curtis in and around a soft drink stand.

The old Seuzeneau family home on Keller Avenue before entering the business world. She is considering an offer through one of the national airlines companies. Upon completion of her studies she is equipped to teach high school.

"Untamed Youth" At A &amp; G Theatre Sunday-Monday, Aug. 18-19

The story of rock-and-roll wild kids is revealed on the screen in "Untamed Youth," starring Mamma Van Doren. The film opens at the A & G Theatre Sunday and Monday, August 18-19. Lori Nelson, also stars and heads a cast of top supporting players including John Russell, Don Burnett, Lurene Tuttle and Eddie Cochran.

"Untamed Youth" reveals the operation of a terror system which sends kids gone-wrong to a "correction" farm where they become the prey of unscrupulous overseers.

Mamma Van Doren stars as Penny Low in "Untamed Youth." This is Miss Van Doren's first motion picture assignment at Warner Bros. and her second free-lance picture since her release from another studio. In "Untamed Youth" the curvaceous Mamma reportedly sings and dances to the latest rock and roll music.

As Miss Van Doren's sister in the film, Lori Nelson returns to Warner Bros. studios where she most recently appeared with Jack Palance and Shelley Winters in "I Died a Thousand Times." Considered one of Hollywood's most versatile young stars, Mrs. Nelson makes a switch from sweet young-girl parts to one with spice and verve in "Untamed Youth."

Much of the motion picture was filmed on location about 20 miles south of Bakersfield, California, where an authentic correction farm, complete with dormitories was built. It is in these dormitories that the secretive, though not so quiet, rock and roll parties are held and Mamma Van Doren reveals the hitherto unseen talents as a rock and roll dancer and singer.

Famed composer and band leader, Les Baxter wrote the music for the film, including the four numbers done by Mamma Van Doren. They are "Rolling Stone," "Salamander," "Oo Ba La Baby" and "You Ain't Gonna Make A Cottonpicking Out of Me."

The team of Aubrey Schenck and Howard W. Koch produced and directed the film respectively. John C. Higgins wrote the screenplay for "Untamed Youth."

MISSISSIPPI'S COTTON STANDS FLOURISHING WITH IDEAL WEATHER

Mississippi's 1,400,000-acre cotton crop flourished last week under what the Mississippi cotton bulletin called "ideal weather conditions." The Delta Weather conditions to favor King Cotton. Crops in most areas look good as a result of recent showers. Boll-wooly appears to be under control. Hill County: "Generally speaking the chopping season for the Hill area is completed. Cotton was clean of grass and weeds in all areas except one."

Mrs. George Thorning have had a pleasant vacation as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins. Mr. Charles and sons were also at the Jenkins residence. The Jenkins residence, 100 Fink of Eunice, La., was a week-end visitor and enjoyed fishing trips with "good catches" because of the abundance of fish in the lake.

Birthdays greetings this week were sent to young J. D. Bourgeois, Jr. and Mrs. Ducre Bourgeois. They celebrated their fourth birthday on Sunday. A delectable dinner was served at the Bourgeois family and guests. Mr. and Mrs. Denny and son, Harold, of Lafayette, La., and Mr. and Mrs. Mallard and Mr. and Mrs. Schwaner, children of New Orleans, are visiting with their grandparents and Mrs. Walter Turner.

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Keesom Hall and daughter, Irene, joined the group for the evening was young Bert Courages of Lakeshore, brother of Mrs. Ott Brockman. Master West Down was of Lakeshore, returned to Hattiesburg with the Brockmans where he will remain for a short visit.

Interesting items from the Carajals have come our way again this week. The cute little blonde "Miss" seen lately on the Carajal pier on Beach Boulevard in Waveland is the Carajal's niece, Sandra Altobelli. Young Sandra is getting a beautiful sun tan.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Hodges and their family are enjoying their vacation at the Carajal cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Macaluso enjoyed the weekend in their home on Beach Blvd.

The following creed was given to us this week and we are asked to "run" it in this column. Today when our teenagers need more than ever, this bit of wise philosophy might well become a part of our daily lives.

"I believe in boys and girls, the men and women of a great tomorrow; that whatever the boy soweth, the man shall reap. I believe in the cause of ignorance, in the efficacy of schools, in the joy of serving others. I believe in wisdom as revealed in human lives, as well as in the pages of a printed book, in the lessons taught, not so much by precept, as by example, in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the head; in everything that makes life large and lovely. I believe in beauty in the school room, in the home, in daily life and in out-of-doors. I believe in laughter, in love, in faith, in all ideals and distant hopes that lure us on. I believe that every hour of every day we receive a just reward for all we are and all we do. I believe in the present and its opportunities in the future and its promises and in the divine joy of living."

—Edwin Osgood Grover.

Bea George's new Mardi Gras Lounge on the Highway will be ringing with the music of Papa Celestine's band this Saturday night. Music will begin at 10:30 p. m. and end about 2:30 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fountain and daughter, Miss Shirley Fountain, and Miss Alma Parker, of Logtown, have returned home after spending a delightful vacation in Waveland. They had many out of town guests during their visit here, and also had the opportunity to see and visit their many friends in Waveland, fishing and crabbing filled most of the day for the youngsters and oldsters, too. Miss Alma Parker left last week for Hattiesburg where she will spend about two weeks.

Not much fishing was done over the weekend. The water up Jordan and Pearl rivers was terrible as most everywhere else. Very few soft crabs and flounders were caught as the tides were not going out until late. This coming week with the tides improving there should be better conditions for these kind of sports.

According to Mr. Jos. diBenedetto a few red fish are being caught up Jordan river. Judge Rene Viosca has been catching reds lately.

The speckles which were up Jordan seem to have left again due to fresh water. They will be back soon we hope.

A the boys of Scout Troop 220 had themselves a time Saturday, when they spent the day at Ship Island. Accompanied by their scoutmaster, Bob Hamilton and L. S. Fahman.

Carl Sentinelli has been catching some real hard crabs out front lately.

There are no live bait to be had at Jordan river just now. Too much fresh water. A few green trout and perch were caught at the head of Bayou Lasent.

Kelly's Camp on Mulatto Bayou usually has live bait for sale as well as shiffs for rent. Jim says they have been catching some fish in that vicinity. It's a swell territory for green trout and perch as well as salt water fish. Fly fishing is usually good there also.

The golf lessons for young people are continuing at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club each Tuesday. Al Cunningham, pro, says he has a swell bunch of students.

The shrimp boil at the Yacht Club Tuesday night was a hum-dinger. Everyone had a good time and plenty of shrimp. The boil was sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce of which C. C. McDonald is president.

Jerry Gordon of New Orleans, former resident, spent a couple of days here. Jerry loves fishing and soft crabbing and says he will be back soon.

The "Jax" fishing contest in the New Orleans area is creating a lot of excitement. There are 333 cash prizes ranging from $10,000 down. The fish have been tagged and when caught the lucky angler gets a cash prize. Fish have been put in Audubon and City Parks and Lake Pontchartrain.

Shirley and "Shep" Richardson enjoyed a week's stay at their camp "Poor House" at River Gardens and caught a fair amount of fish and crabs despite the unfavorable tides. They had as guests over the weekend, Shep's brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Richardson and children of Metairie, La.

A party who enjoyed catching mackerel Tuesday out at Ship Island consisted of A. C. Mitchell, Sylvan Ladner, Jim Necaise, Philip Seafidi, Curtis Matherne and Percy Bennett. "Mitch" said they were not monsters, but were good size for eating. They made the trip on a chartered boat out of Biloxi.

Ainsworth Kidd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kidd, now making his home in Guatemala, has been here on vacation. Ainsworth loves to fish and hopes to get in a couple of trips while here.

The carrot is considered an excellent foodstuff—and perhaps it has seen service above and beyond the call of vegetable duty. In World War II, a rumor started circulating that our night flyers were improving their vision by eating lots of carrots—and drinking huge amounts of carrot juice. Carrots, like many other foods, will only help cure night blindness in people who already have poor diets.

The inventor of spectacles is one of the unknown heroes of science—and an anonymous benefactor of mankind. Until spectacles were introduced more than 650 years ago, millions of near-sighted people didn't think the world they lived in was such an impressive place. They lived out their lives unable to see mountains, clouds or stars.

Asiatic Influenza Meeting Its Match In U. S. Army

Asiatic influenza, like so many of the nation's foes in the past, is meeting its match in the U. S. Army.

One of the most widespread epidemics to hit the world in many years has "virgally" reached the United States. It is expected to affect 10 to 15 per cent of the nation's population between now and the end of the winter, the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service has estimated.

The disease, known to medical men as "Far East-57," has already infected millions of persons in widespread areas of the world. Fortunately, the disease is usually mild, lasting from two to four days, with fever, aching and cough.

It was the Army which first isolated the new strain of virus and thus made it possible to produce a vaccine. And again it is the Army which is now planning to have all its personnel vaccinated with the new vaccine by the end of the fall.

On April 18 a newspaper item reported an influenza outbreak in Hong Kong. The same day the Army Surgeon General cabled the Chief Surgeon of the Army Forces in the Far East requesting that an epidemiologist be sent to investigate this report.

Just 34 days later a team headed by Dr. Maurice R. Hilleman, chief of the Department Respiratory Diseases at the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research, identified this virus as one different from any known influenza strain.

As soon as the virus was identified, the Army Institute of Research advised manufacturers by telephone of the significance of this new strain, and of its possible importance as the basis for a new vaccine.

This early action by the Army in considering the need for mass vaccination prompted the pharmaceutical industry to develop a vaccine. A commercial vaccine will thus be available sooner than could otherwise have been expected.

At the present six manufacturers of the vaccine are working around the clock—21 shifts a week—to turn out some 8,000,000 doses by the end of the summer.

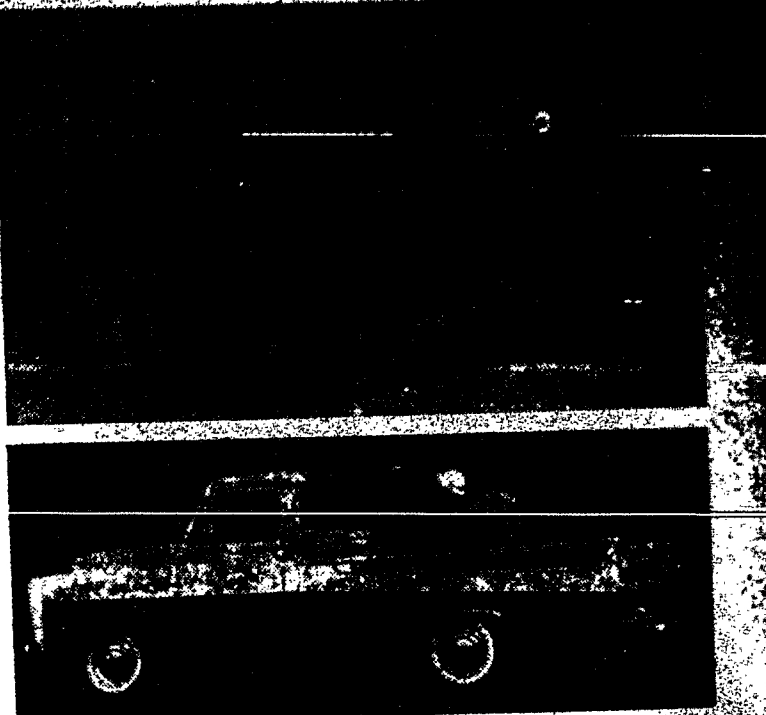

Of these 8,000,000 one-half will go to the armed forces. All military personnel will be immunized with the new vaccine before the end of 1937.

The new vaccine will be used in place of the old formula, which has been given to military personnel each fall for several years. It is anticipated that delivery of the vaccine and the institution of vaccinations will begin in September.

A second vaccination may be ordered later in the season, depending on future developments. No significant occurrence of flu has developed in Third Army to date.

The Public Health Service, which has been carrying the load of the immunization program since the Army's first big step, expects to have 60,000,000 doses by the end of January, 1938.

Transportation --- Old and New

Earliest American truck built in quantity production was the 33-horsepower screen-side delivery unit (top) manufactured by Dodge in 1917. Only $31,037 trucks then were on American highways. Now, 40 years later, the 204-horsepower sweep-side Dodge truck (bottom) is among 10,000,000 trucks serving the nation.

To Explain The Fundamentals Of The Free Enterprise System

Business and education leaders are being asked by the Mississippi Economic Council to consider staging business-education days during the coming school term as a way of explaining fundamentals of the free enterprise system.

Earl Flowers, Ruleville businessman and chairman of the MEC's economic education committee, said he had written school superintendents and local chamber managers in centers with chambers of commerce, offering the material and assistance used in planning and staging B-E and E-B Days.

Quite a number of centers are already planning the events, he said.

"For the mutual benefit of both, education and business need to know more about each other," Mr. Flowers told the two groups. "Each is dependent, to a large degree, upon the other. Therefore, both will make progress as they mutually understand and appreciate each other."

Last year, 23 centers held either a B-E Day, where the teachers visit local businesses, or an E-B Day, where businessmen visit local schools.

"We trust at least 30 centers will hold such days this year," the chairman said. "Experience shows the events bring more benefit if staged early in the school year. Therefore, plans should be made now."

Serving with Mr. Flowers on the committee are: Henry C. Brevard, Jr., Tupelo; S. C. Craven, Piquette; Paul A. Frasier, Waynesboro; and H. S. Simmons, Kosciusko. Morris Lewis, Jr. of Indianola, is chairman of the MEC's general committee on education, under which the economic education committee functions.

A few score years ago, when scientifically prepared, ready-to-use eyeglasses were not available, the blue-eyed mountain girls of the Southern Appalachians used juice from the Jimson weed as an eye application. The juice was thought to enlarge the pupil so that only a thin rim of the blue showed. Today the dictionary defines the weed as being "intensely poisonous." Its use definitely is not recommended say Murine Company researchers.

Shelby Tucker, Jr. Hits News Coming Out Of Russia

For the second time in two weeks Shelby Tucker, Jr. well known former resident of Bay St. Louis, has hit the news coming out of Moscow, and relative to the World Youth Festival to which Russia played host to some 150 American youths. In a dispatch dated August 11, Stirling Slappey, a correspondent for the Associated Press said, "In the American delegation there were fellows like Shelby Tucker, Jr. of Pass Christian, Miss; who refused to go to any party in the Kremlin."

As the youths pecked to leave, either for their native land or for a similar entertainment in Red China, Slappey made these observations:

The festival—a lavish affair that started two weeks ago—gave the Americans a chance to see Russians at first hand and at the same time, it gave Russians a chance to see Americans under circumstances very rare in the Soviet Union. Americans fared better than expected. They met Soviet youth in surprisingly open discussions and held their ground. The communists fared pretty well, also. Delegates from Asia and Africa were impressed with lavish hospitality and propaganda. Slappey said most Europeans and Americans were divided into three groups:

1—Those who came favoring communism and returning home with their convictions unshaken.

2—Those who came convinced that communism could not work, and who left with the same idea.

3—Those who were still so confused by all the display and entertainment that they would need much time in retrospect to decide.

SMALL AND LARGE DAIRY BREEDS ARE COMPARED IN TEST

State College, Miss.—New figures on a variety of farm subjects are included in the latest report of the Pontotoc Ridge — Flatwoods Branch Experiment Station. The station, of which B. C. Hurt, Jr., is superintendent, is located south of Pontotoc.

Dairy management studies are being conducted to determine the efficiency of a small breed as compared to a large breed. During the first calf lactation period Holsteins produced an average of 10,200 pounds of 34 percent butterfat milk. In the same period, the Jerseys produced an average of 6,500 pounds of 4.6 percent butterfat milk. The average milk production per cow day was 33.3 pounds for the Holsteins and 21.9 for the Jerseys.

Winter grazing tests in the Pontotoc Ridge area were composed of irrigated and non-irrigated oats and barley. The average beef gain per acre on non-irrigated oats was 165 pounds. This produced a net return of $15.65 per acre. The irrigated oats produced an average beef gain of 337 lbs. and a net return of $37.65. The non-irrigated barley produced an average of 215 pounds of beef with a net return of $30.56. The irrigated plot of barley showed a beef yield of 440 pounds per acre and $55.65 net return per acre.

A peach orchard of four varieties was established on the Pontotoc Ridge soil area where several cultural practices were compared. Crimson clover, sericea, clean cultivation and oat straw were used seasonally in the orchard test. Trees made excellent growth with all cultural practices except where sericea was planted. Tree measurements were taken each year, and it was noted that sericea retarded tree growth as compared to clean cultivation and crimson clover. The average yields per acre for all treatments were, Dixie Red 260, Red Haven 260, Triogen 270, and Florida 178 bushels.

An ophthalmologist who examines your eyes can give you quite a bit of "inside information." From looking at the only visible internal blood vessel—the retina vessel back of the eyeball—he can find clues that help him know how the rest of your body is functioning—your heart, liver, kidneys, blood pressure, thyroid, and even your teeth. Doctors say that disease-free eyes will never wear out from too much use.

When the collision occurred Boss' car slid down the roadway embankment and turned over, causing slight injury to Miss Hanna. Hospitalization was not necessary.

Damage estimated to Boss' car was set at $500.00 while $10.00 was the figure placed on Faines' truck.

what communism and all of it was all about.

Many were leaving for Communist China on a guided tour. The U. S. State Department urged them not to attend, but stated that it would not attempt to stop them.

To this writer the scheme seemed the boldest so far, on the part of the Communists, and it was with misgivings that the visit to Russia and to Red China was meditated upon. But, according to Slappey the delegation from the United States "let more fresh air into Soviet politics than any one else had done in years" and that many youths had shed most of their illusions about so-called "benevolent" life in the Communist capital.

Joining two other youths in their early twenties, Tucker took his stand in front of the Lenin-Statue mausoleum in Red Square and spent most of his time explaining the United Nations report on Hungary and giving an authentic picture of life in the United States.

The boys were able to dispel rumors of cruelty and injustice attributed to their homeland, and gradually the Russians began to ask questions and to show some sign of acceptance.

"The grape-vine is great," said one of the American youths, "we know that what we said to two hundred or two thousand would get back to thousands more."

Only one American youth is reported to have defected and remained voluntarily in Russia.

A telephone conversation with Shelby Tucker Sr. at Pass Christian revealed that "he was not too happy" at the prospect of his son 22-year-old Tucker, Jr., following the tour to Communist-sponsored Red China. He expressed a desire to contact his son to try to intervene, since he did not wish him to "break the regulations with the state department."

Mr. Tucker said that the boy would have no diplomatic protection if he entered Red China, adding that "the boy has good judgment, however, and will know how to conduct himself."

Tucker, Jr., is a law student who attends Oxford in England.

WEDDING OF INTEREST TOOK PLACE SATURDAY

A wedding of interest was that of Miss Patricia Lou Baggett and William Alexander Gordon of Waveland, which was celebrated in the Catholic Church on Saturday morning.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. Arthur Baggett of Bonita, Fla., while Mr. Gordon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gordon of Waveland.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John P. Robinson before the families of the bride and groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white organza gown made on flowing lines with appliques of lace flowers gracing the bodice and skirt. A rounded neckline and short flared sleeves completed the lines. The headpiece was made of embroidered organza and was cut into deep points. It was worn in the new forward trend and from the back fell a veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Jacqueline Lafaye was the bride's maid of honor and her only attendant. Her gown, a bouffant white organza, was worn with a hand bouquet of yellow asters.

Mr. Carroll Keeler Gordon, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Mr. John A. Gordon, another brother of the groom and Mr. Arthur Hope Baggett, brother of the bride.

An informal reception was held for members of the family and close friends at the Waveland home of the groom's parents.

Later in the day the young couple left on a honeymoon trip to points in Florida. The bride chose for her traveling ensemble a gold and white cotton tweed which she wore with brown accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will occupy an apartment at 608 Esplanade Avenue, in New Orleans.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR BRIDE-ELECT

At a miscellaneous shower honoring bride-elect Shirley Bufkin last Friday, Mrs. Merlin Ladner of Pass Christian played hostess.

The honoree chose for the occasion a tulle gown of green and cream colored imported tissue, made on sheath lines and worn with white accessories. She was presented a corsage of pink baby chrysanthemums by the hostess.

The mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Guy Bufkin, was attired in a green cotton sheath having a wide white collar as trim, and worn with white accessories.

The refreshment table was spread with a silver linen cloth and held a miniature wedding cake as a centerpiece surrounded with greenery and tiny white flowers.

Interspersed throughout the rooms in the Ladner home were arrangements of pink roses and greenery in graceful tracings.

The roll-call of men in the field of ophthalmology—the science of vision—is filled with the names of well-known historical figures, according to researchers for the Marine Company of Chicago. They include: Leonardo da Vinci, Florentine painter, sculptor, architect and engineer, who about 1508, recorded a theory of contact lenses; Roger Bacon, 13th century English philosopher, statesman and author, who made history's first mention of the employment of lenses as a means of assisting sight; and Ben Franklin, American philosopher and statesman, who invented (for his own use) bifocal lenses about 1780. Perhaps the forerunner of all was Alhazen, an Arabian astronomer, who worked out the principles of optics in the 11th century.
